SOUTHEAST CHAPTER

The Norse Discovery of America

Icelandic sagas describe the colonization of Greenland by Eric the Red and subsequent discovery of land further west by his son Leif Erickson. He would name this land "Vinland the Good"

Join independent researcher

Gregory M. Lott as he revisits the work done by Norwegian explorer and author Helge Ingstad and his archaeologist wife Anne Stine Ingstad.

Their extensive efforts would prove that Europeans visited North America nearly 500 years prior to Columbus.
