Dr. Calvin Mires

“Maritime Archaeology for the Community: Nautical Archaeology Society Training Opportunities for Southeastern Massachusetts”

Dr. Calvin Mires Has More Than Sixteen-Years Experience in Maritime Archaeology, Training Over One-Hundred Graduate Students in the Field and Leading Research.

He is the 2015 Recipient of the National Park Service's Maritime Heritage Grant.

The Nautical Archaeology Society (NAS) is an international non-profit organization based in Portsmouth, UK, that has set the standard for avocational training in maritime archaeology around the world. Bridgewater State University (BSU) has recently received licensure to offer NAS courses to the public from Maine to Rhode Island. It is the only university in New England that is allowed to offer these opportunities. You don't even have to get wet, or scuba dive, to participate!
